

GIVE KIDS A HAND

YOUR HandPrint WILL BE PART OF THE “REACHING OUT” MONUMENT

Sculptor Michael C. Irving, Ph.D. designed the massive “Reaching Out” monument to optimize participation. HandPrint messages of the Monument create a national collective visualization of our intent to protect children.

“Reaching Out”

Michael C. Irving, Ph.D., Sculptor

Inside the bronze “Reaching Out” figures is space for hundreds of thousands of hand outlines on regular pieces of paper. Many thousands have already been collected. You are invited to be one of the monument artists through your HandPrint contribution. In perpetuity the Monument will hold our collective national visualization of our intention to protect children.

TO GIVE KIDS YOUR HAND for placement inside The “Reaching Out” Child Abuse Monument

- Draw an outline of your hand on a piece of 8 ½ x 11 paper.
- On or around the outline of your hand, write or draw your personal message.

Send YOUR HandPrint to: The Child Abuse Survivor Monument at:

274 Rhodes Ave. Toronto, ON
Canada, M4L 3A3
